Review writing tips:

- Keep your writing style conversational and chatty - write like you’re telling a friend about the book
- It’s good to include information about what the story is about, but don’t make the whole review about the plot, and be careful to avoid spoilers
- What did you think of the book? Did you like it? How did it make you feel? Give examples of things that you liked or didn’t like about the book.
- It’s okay to say that you didn’t enjoy a book, but try to be constructive. Were there any elements that you did like? Do you think that the book might appeal to others?
- Try rating books according to the Goodreads star system from www.goodreads.com
